Lord's Prayer

People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Scripture – Isaiah 5:20 – Karen Brook

Sermon – What is Right and What is Wrong? - Pastor Tammie Isidore

Hymn - #400 Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Prayer of Confession – Pastor Tammie Isidore

People: Great and Holy God, You are the author of truth and the giver of light. You have shown us what is right and what is wrong, yet we confess we have often chosen darkness over light, confusion over clarity, and comfort over conviction. you count the hairs on our heads, and call each of us by name. You have given us your Word as a lamp for our feet, and your Spirit to guide us into all truth. Still, we try to make our own rules. We say what is evil is good, and what is good, evil. We justify what pleases us, and question what challenges us. Forgive us, O God. We have not always wanted to know what is right; we have only wanted what is easy. We've closed our ears to your voice and opened our hearts to lies that sound appealing. We've placed our opinions above your commandments, and we have led others into the same confusion. Turn us around, Holy One. Renew our hunger for what is true and just. Restore in us a reverence for your ways. By your Spirit, help us not only to know what is right, but to do what is right with courage and love. Remind us that righteousness is not an opinion—it is your holy calling. In your mercy, O God, forgive who we have been, and transform who we are becoming, so that our lives may reflect your truth.

All: Amen.
