ORDER OF WORSHIP

Greeting/Announcements/Passing the Peace – Joan Beharie

Call to Worship – Scott Wattles

Leader: The dawn is coming, though the night still lingers.

People: We wait in hope for the light of Christ.

Leader: In our silence, God is still speaking.

People: In our waiting, God is still working.

Leader: After silence comes a song; after darkness comes the dawn.

All: Blessed be the Lord, for God's mercy is new every morning.

Prayer– Scott Wattles

Holy and gracious God, As we gather at the edge of Advent, we come from the noise of our days into the hush of Your presence. We bring our questions, our waiting, and our longing for light. Like Zechariah, we have known seasons of silence and uncertainty, but today we open our hearts to Your promise. Break through our unbelief with the dawn of Your mercy. Let the light of Christ rise within us, that we may leave this place singing a new song — a song of hope, peace, joy, and love. In the name of Jesus Christ, the coming King, we pray.

Amen.

People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Advent (4 weeks) Begins Next Sunday, November 30

Advent means 'Coming' in Latin. This is the coming of Jesus into the world. We use the four weeks of Advent to prepare ourselves and remember the real meaning of Christmas. Each Sunday we share in a special reading as the advent candles are lit in preparation of the arrival of Jesus Christ. This season is a perfect time to invite family and friends to join you in preparation for the true meaning of Christmas. Christmas Eve Services: 4:00 pm Family Worship, 5:30 pm Candlelight Communion Worship.
